In service training (INSET days): School staff are obliged to take part in dedicated training days every academic year. These staff days form a vital and valuable aspect of continuing staff professional development. During these days the school is closed to children.

The following is an extract from 'Attendance Policy'

Requests for Holiday during term time

While family holidays are enriching experiences, the school year is designed to give families the opportunity for these breaks without having to disrupt their children's education. It is for schools to consider the specific details and relevant context behind each request. As set out in the Education (Pupil Registration) (England) Regulations 2006 amended in 2013 - Headteachers continue to have the power to authorise leave of absence but only in exceptional circumstances.

If leave of absence is granted and is deemed as 'exceptional circumstances' this absence will be marked as authorised.

All authorised absence agreed for 'exceptional circumstances' during term-time will be monitored to ensure the pupil returns by the agreed date otherwise the school will inform the Local Authority.
